

1901-022 Chancery Causes: J. O. Gibson vs. Mary E. Blankenship &
Lee Co.

Weston, Crockett

CA-Estate Dispute
T-Property

Virginia,

In the Circuit Court of Lee County.

To the Hon. W. T. Miller, Judge of said Court:-

-----Humbly complaining, your orator,
J. O. Gibson, sheweth unto your honor, that M. H. Crockett, departed this life intestate on the---day of-----189---; that Mrs. M.
E. Crockett qualified as his administratrix in the County Court of Lee County, Virginia, on the---day of-----189--; that she has never settled her account as such administratrix and that by reason of her marriage her office as such administratrix became vacant on the--- day of August 1895; that W. P. Weston, Sheriff of said county was thereafter appointed administrator de bonis non of said estate; that said personal estate is wholly insufficient to pay its indebtedness; that the said M. H. Crockett executed to your orator his promissory note on the 18th day of July 1892, due one day after the date thereof for the sum of fifty ($50.00) dollars, which note is wholly unpaid.

-----Your orator further represents that the said M. H.
Crockett died seized and possessed of one moiety in a house and lot situated in the West end of Jonesville, on the North side of Main St.; which was purchased from and conveyed to him and his wife M. E. Crockett jointly by John P. Graham and wife on the --day of -----189--; that he left M. E. Crockett, his widow, and the following children, who are infants, to-wit: Hill, Auburn, Carroll and Hal Crockett.

-----The said M. E. Crockett, who has since married George W. Blankenship, is entitled to a moiety in said property and dower in the other moiety.

-----The prayer of your orator is that M. E. Blankenship nee M. E. Crockett, in her own right and as administratrix of M. H.

Crockett, deceased, W. P. Weston, administrator de bonis non of M. H. Crockett, deceased, and Hill Crockett, Auburn Crockett, Carroll Crockett and Hal Crockett be made parties defendant to this bill and answer the same upon oath; that a Commissioner be appointed to ascertain the ~~indebtedness~~ indebtedness of said estate, settle the account of the said administrators and report the real estate owned by said M. H. Crockett at the time of his death and the value of the dower of the said M. E. Blankenship, in said real estate; that general relief be granted your orator, and as in duty bound he will ever pray. May the Commonwealth's writ of Spa issue, etc., directed, etc., and that a Guardian Ad Litem be appointed to answer for the infant defendants.

infants under the age of twenty-one years, by R. L. Pennington (a discreet and competent attorney at law), their guardian ad litem assigned to defend them in this suit, and the answer of the said R. L. Pennington, guardian ad litem of the said infant defendants, to a bill of complaint exhibited against the said infants and others by J. O. Gibson in the Circuit Court of the County of Lee,

For answer to the said bill the said infant defendants by their said guardian ad litem answer and say that being of tender years they do not know what their true interests are in relation to the subject matter of the said bill, nor do they know whether the statements therein contained are true or not. They confide the protection of their interests therein to the care of the court. And the said guardian ad litem of the said infant defendants for answer to the said bill answers and says that he knows nothing as to the truth or falsity of the statements in the bill contained. He prays full protection for the infant defendants. And now having fully answered, these defendants pray to be hence dismissed with their costs, etc.

To Wm A. Orr, Special Commissioner in the above styled cause:

I hereby request you to report to the Court that I want money in lieu of Dower in kind out of the proceeds of the sale of the real estate of M. H. Crockett, deceased. Given under my hand and seal, this August-1st, 1896. I was 34 yr old on the 29 day of May 1896.

Mary E. Blankenship. Seal
nee Mary E. Crockett.

J. O. Gibson vs W. P. Weston, Admin et al - In Chy.

To the Hon. W. J. Miller, Judge of the Circuit Court of Lu Co, Va:
Your undersigned comes in the above styled cause, appointed June 5th, 1896, before him to report; that he executed said decree on July 24th and succeeding days; that he first gave notice to all the persons in interest; that no estate came into the hands of W. P. Weston, Admin - having been appointed for the sole purpose of this suit; that he settled the account of Mary E. Blankenship ne Mary E. Crockett, Admin of the Estate of M. H. Crockett, dec'd, and, said Settlement shows that she has now paid said estate the sum of $164.89 as of August 1st, 1896; that he has ascertained the debts (and costs of this suit) against said Crockett's Estate and finds that the same amounts to the sum of $430.87 on Aug. 1st, 1896. The Statement of debts hereto attached shows the amounts and to whom due.

At the time of M. H. Crockett's death, he owned one half of one and seven eighths of one acre of land in the west end of Joursville, Va, on which G. W. Blankenship now lives. The said Crockett's widow, now, Mary E. Blankenship owns the other half of said lot, and she also owns down in the other moiety. Down has not been assigned, nor has said lot been partitioned. The said widow authorizes me in writing (here filed marked "Down") to Report that she desires to release her down in kind and take in lieu thereof down in money out of the proceeds of the sale - and she states that she is now thirty four years old.

Your commission has not ascertained the real value of this property for the reason that he believes the creditors to be entitled to a sale thereof under the Statute which gives them a lien.

Respectfully Submitted,
Wm A. Orr, Sr.,

To the Hon. W. T. Miller, Judge of said Court:

-----The undersigned Commissioner in this cause respectfully reports, that pursuant to the decree therein rendered on the 6th day of November 1896, and after having advertised as in said decree directed, he proceeded at the front door of the Court House of said County in Jonesville, on the 15th day of ^{February} ~~March~~ 1897, a court day, to sell to the highest bidder, at public out-cry, the undivided one-half of the house and lot in the said decree mentioned, upon the terms in said decree directed, at which sale Mary E. Blankenship bid the sum of $128.00 for said interest, and this being the highest and best bid offered, the same was knocked off to her at that price, and she thereupon paid down to your Commissioner $40.75 the costs of suit, and $6.40 his commission on said sale, and for the residue of $80.85 she executed to your Commissioner her three several notes, with George W. Blankenship, her security, for $26.95 each, and payable in one, two and three years after date, with interest from date.

And your Commissioner, as directed in said decree, has ascertained the value of the dower interest of said Mary E. Blankenship, who is the late widow of M. H. Crockett, deceased, in the said $80.85, the net amount of said sale, ^{after payment of costs &c} and finds her interest therein, she being 34 years old, to be $20.50.
